The rebels in their late incursion into Pennsylvania were very anxious to capture Hon. Thad. Stevens: failing in this they burnt his iron works. In a conversation with his manager, of which we find a report in the N. Y. Tribune, the rebel Gen. Early regretted that he had not captured the proprietor with the works. "No doubt you would give him a berth in Libby," said the manager. "No, sir," said the General; "I would hang him on the spot and divide his bones and send them to

We take the following account from e Frankfort Commonwealth of Monday: GOVERNOR ROBINSON'S RETURN HOME. - Our distinguished and justly beloved ex-Governor, James F. Robinson, left our city on Wednesday morning, at 10½ o'clock, accompanied by a committee of our leading citizens, who escorted him to Scott county.

On arriving at the residence of Capt. New-on Graig, within four miles of Georgetown, Governor Robinson and his escort were met by a large number of his fellow-citizens of Scott county, who had gathered there to welcome home the man whom, in all the relations come home the man whom, in all the relations of life, they had, in common with his fellow-citizens everywhere, admired and revered for his eminent ability and public services, and loved for his pure and elevated character. On behalf of his friends and neighbors he was welcomed by Gen. John T. GOVERNOR ROBINSON: The time has now arrived when, laying aside the cares and responsibilities of the high office which you have held, you are to return to the familiar and endearing scenes of home, and the kind greetings of neighbors and friends.

If the public interests have suffered, if private rights have been invaded, none will lay the blame at your door who have witnessed, as we have witnessed, the earnestness with which you have labored to prevent such evils. We congratulate you that your fellow-citizens throughout the Commonwealth have appreciated your zeal for the public good, and have attested in every manner which you would permit their confidence in and regard for you. Nor is this all. The true hearted and conservative patriots everywhere unite to extol the position to which you have been so instrumental in bringing

GLASGOW, SCOTLAND, August, 1863. On the last anniversary of our country's birthday a few American residents in Glasgow assembled at Arden Kyle, on the Clyde, the beautiful residence of our worthy Consul, to do honor to the day so dear to every American heart. Mr. Underwood being necessari ly absent on the continent, his lady did the honors, and the hospitality and good cheer proved that "Old Kentuck" has worthy representatives abroad. When the cloth was removed patriotic toasts were drank, in "wine and Crittenden," and other patriots who have labored so hard to preserve the Union of the States;" and the day's entertainment closed with the following bumber toast drank with

THE REBEL TRADE AT MATAMORAS .- The officers of the Government steamer Bermuds which arrived at Philadelphia on Sunday, state that while on blockading duty at the mouth of the Rio Grande river they had ample opportunity to observe the manner of for eign trade with the rebels. They say:

The port of Matamoras is a Mexican im porting and exporting city. The rebels use it as the chief city of the cotton trade of the South. The cotton is conveyed across the Rio Grande to Matamoras. The merchan vessels of France and England clear for Mata moras and anchor in the stream. Tugs carrying fifty or sixty bales of cotton then come from the city, and the cotton is hoisted on board the vessels in neutral waters. While the Bermuda lay off the Rio Grande a fleet of merchantmen were in the river, and a contin-ual line of tugs passed to and fro. The steam-ers thus receive their cargoes and leave the river. They carry contraband cargoes, but the meteer flag of England or the lilies of France floats from the mast-head. The United States gunboats may approach, but they can-not take the vessel in custody, and configuranot take the vessel in custody and confiscate her cargo. The blockading squadron, the Princess Royal and others, lie off Matamora but they are powerless to stop the neutral traf-fic. Over the blue waves go the merchant-men, and they reach London, Liverpool, or the French ports of entry. There a cargo of sup-plies, provisions, clothing, shoes, every arti-cle that the Confederacy needs, is shipped; the prows again turn seaward; the course is directed towards the Mexican Gulf, and the cargo is landed at Matamoras. Such is Enlish and French neutrality.

[From the Richmond Whig, August 27.] THE NEXT YANKEE CONGRESS & THE WAR The action of the next Northern Congress will involve much as regards the duration of the war. The Democrats having a majority of two or three on joint ballot, will have it in their power to embarrass the administration to a degree which will materially impair its ability to prosecute the war for any protracted period. Lincoln will seek to remove every pretext for a cessation or suspension of hostil an indication of the imminence of Southern subjugation. With this view the most stuous efforts to achieve additional victories are being put forth. The capture of Charleston must, if possible, be effected, as the best means to gratify popular resentment at the North, and strengthen the feasibility of ulti-

The more victories Lincoln will have to re-The more victories Lincoln will have to recount, the less odium will he incur should Congress make any successful move in the direction of peace. Indeed, the efforts of Congress in that direction will, it may be presumed, be seriously embarrassed by these successes. The Northern mind, sanguine when there is scarcely ground for hope, will warm up to the point of unquestionable certainty in the matter of our subjugation, under the influence of the plausible presentation by Seward, through Lincoln, of a series of facts justifying a presumption of our early subjugation. This will, to a great extent, reconcile the popular mind of the North to a continuance of the war, and render the Democracy in ance of the war, and render the Democracy in Congress chary of a policy antagonistic to it Seward will seek by every means to work on the popular mind, and, through it, on the Democracy; for the villain knows that a party aiming at ascendancy would be unwilling to run counter to the will of the majority. The tone of public sentiment at the North will be materially modified by a failure to capture Charleston. The victories at Vicksburg and Port Hudson have proved to be barren ones, and this conviction has evidently seized the Northern mind; for we find that since the first solution of enthusiasm passed off, scarcely a reference is made to them. As a political ex-pedient, the fall of Charleston is all important, for it would serve as an acceptable offering to

A triumph or two of our armies would materially modify the tone of Northern sentiment, and open the way for a peace movement on the part of the Democrats in Congress. If the object is to erect a military despotism on the ruins of the rump republic, that object will not be promoted by prosecuting the war to the period of inevitable reaction, which is ally leads to a more vigorous and determined exercise of power, and reaction once set in, is not easily stayed by legitimate resistance. The reaction at the North has attained suffi-cient power to make itself felt, and unless some serious reverse overtakes us between this and the meeting of Congress, Lincoln will find himself considerably embarrassed by e action of that body.

The defeat of Meade would in all probability bring on a crisis which would at once de-termine the duration of the war. Such an equipoise of strength would be established be-tween the two parties as would necessitate He would find himself forced to the alternative of submission, or the assumption of dictatorial powers. The choice of the latter will the Presidency, he would undoubtedly take that step; but inasmuch as his elevation to that position would be defeated by a coup detat of this sort by Lincoln, he will doubt-less oppose it. Lincoln will be forced to reveal his object in prolonging the war, and to assume a position of defiance or submission. The several members of the Democratic party will become fully informed of the sentiments of the people of their respective districts, and they will, doubtless, act in accordance with them. If the administration acts counter to these sentiments, then will the crisis come, and the issue will be

The success of the Democracy will guarantee its triumph in the next Presidential election, and it is this fact which will form the strongest incentive to an extreme resort on the part of Lincoln. Defeat of his war policy now will involve the inevitable defeat of abolitionism in the Presidential election, and entail upon the authors of this war all the hor rors of an outraged people, maddened by poverty, taxation, loss of trade, ruin of manufactures of the same and the hor erty, taxaton, less of trade, rain of manufactures and commerce, and the sacrifice of life, caused by this war, can inflict. This is a terrible prospect, the worst, in fact, that could arise from any policy to which Lincoln in his desperation may resort.

Resentments enough have been engendered in the public mind of the North by the tyranny of Lincoln and his associates to serve all the ends to be looked for from the most audacious acts of usurpation. This consciousness may drive Old Abe to extreme measures, and the risis may be precipitated sooner than the most credulous could be led to believe.

THE HOOSIER CHAMPION.-For a long time t has been shrewdly suspected by the "know-ng ones" that John McDevitt, of this city, change Building, was a match for any of the renowned "knights of the cue," whose tour-naments have figured so largely in the papers, and whose "runs," "nursings," and other mysteries of the green-carpeted table, have voked columns of admiring comment. His dinary play has shown a larger average of counts" than many, if not any, of the games that have attracted so much attention, and his friends have been ready to back him even against the champion, Kavanaugh, so far as his nerves could be depended on to do justice to his skill, though his disinclination to be made conspicuous, it was feared, would em-barrass him too much to make him "safe" in a match. On Saturday he proved that his friends had not over-estimated his skill. As the opening of a billiard saloon in Cincinnati, by Phil. Tieman, the renowned Western champion, at which Phelan and Kavanaugh, esteemed the two best players in the country, were to be present, McDevitt concluded to attend also, to see the magnates of the cue, with ieman, in which he was decidedly victorious. United States, was arranged. He beat Kavanaugh two games of 500 points, in the first making a run of 179, and in the ers in America. He is but little over twenty years old, and with care and practice will yet beat all rivals. A game, in public, at Pike's Opera House, came off on Saturday night between Phelan, Kavanaugh, Tieman, and

CREDITS ON THE DRAFT .- It will be seen by the subjoined letter from Col. Fry, Provost Marshal General, to the Hon. Freeman Clarke, of Rochester, N. Y., that it has been found necessary, in carrying out the draft, to abandon all attempts to credit towns or subdistricts with the excess of volunteers furnished by them under previous calls for men. This new decision, being contrary to the assurances given to the Governors of several of the States, has caused much dissatisfaction in some of the towns which are entitled to credits. The reasons of this change of purpose are stated in Colonel Fry's letter:

WAR DEPARTMENT, PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL'S OFFICE, Washington, August 27, 1863. Hon. Freeman Clarke, M. C., of Rochester, N. Y., Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.:
Sin: The proposition contained in my letter to Governor Andrew was made to relieve tention of making it general, or supposing that it would be so considered. The numerous applications made by various towns and other small organizations soon satisfied me that it would be difficult, if not impossible, to find any principle of adjustment which would apply to all or even any great number of cases.

I was under the impression that the scheme devised and suggested to Gov. Seymour and others would be of some practical effect, which was to ascertain the names of men claimed to have been furnished, and compare them with the muster-in rolls on file in the War Department. In one or two instances where this has been attempted it is found to be a very extensive labor, and no adequate results have been arrived at, and the time which would be taken up with the claims of all who choose to make them would cause so much delay as to seriously with other important business. An earnest and faithful effort has been made to carry out the plan, but the effort has brought so many difficulties and complications ich I did not foresee, and developed so many obstacles which cannot be overcome, that I am at last compelled to abandon the idea. I wrote to Governor Andrew under the im-towns could be adjusted, it would almost neutralize the effect of the draft, and to raise men nough from the few towns which admit a do what I contemplated, and give my reasons for it, I can at least ask and hope for acquies-cence in a decision which has become una-

The previous action of towns and ounties in excess show that they possess a counties in excess show that they possess a a patriotic sense of the necessity, the absolute necessity, of pressing to a victorious conclusion the war upon which we stand or fall as a nation, and of providing men and means for the purpose. I therefore rely upon their patriotism and their interest in a return of peace and prosperity to abate a little their claims for previous generosity, and, if drafted, to assume cheerfully the honor which awaits them of being the winners of the last victory. inder date of Aug. 27th, says There has been a little change in the military force at Brashear City. The 13th Con-necticut has been withdrawn and replaced by he 114th New York, and Lieutenant-Colone Perlee, of the latter regiment as senior offi-cer, supersedes Lieutenant-Colonel Peck in command of the Post. Frequent interviews are held with Col. Jim Major, commanding the Confederate advance on the other side of the bay. Kirby Smith is said to be fortifying at Trinity, on the Black river. The whole Confederate force in the Attakapas country is preparing for, if not expecting another advance in the fall. Herron's men have come down from Port Hudson, and are in camp at Greenville, just above this city. A very large camp, with half the 13th army corps, is on the swamp this side of Carrolton. The rest of the corps is at Camp Parapet above, and a few regiments are on the opposite side of the river. Since the appearance of highwaymen "in artillery uniform" on the shell road to the dinner takes the road to Carrolton. I have seen the new camp, which extends for some distance along the road. The men are bronzed with the sun and siege of Vicksburg, and if they were "rebels" we should say that they were very ragged and very dirty. One or two evenings since I saw a squad of five of these men going out for the night on picket duty, and four of them were barefoot. The Federal officer who was with me said: "See those damned scarecrows!" If I had said it, it would have been seditious.

Herron's camp is beautifully and comfortably located in a fine oak opening. The camps have generally been selected in this vicinity with a view to the sanitary condition of the men; but swamps abound, and I know that the new comers have general idea that was the new comers have a general idea that magnolia birds are mosquitoes and that mosqui-toes are magnolia birds; while there is a prevalent opinion that the swamp grasshoppers (which are from three to four inches in length) are Louisiana fleas. Of course the troops are well fed, and largely on fresh beef now. There where, excepting on the plantations. The concentration of a large body of men at this point naturally suggests the idea of a movement by and by. Public opinion is divided as to the next point of attack. It may be an advance upon Mobile, for the reduction of that place, or toward Texas, for the purpose of occupying Brownsville and endeavoring to stop the contraband trade on the Rio Grande; or once more ("just once") into the Teche and Attakapas country, to recover the lost region, to collect the crops and internal revenue, and, possibly, to prepare for the election of one or two more United States Congressmen from this loyal State. There is nothing to indicate that the movement (in time and to-morrow morning; and, possibly many more Sunday morning suns may rise over the 13th and 19th army corps in peaceful occupation of their present camps. PROGRESS OF MISSIONARY WORK IN INDIA .-The London Saturday Review says: The religious side of India is prosaic. There are no wholesale conversions—none miraculous successes, reported or fabled of Xavier—no splendid triumph of Protestantism. Things go on very soberly in the India of real life. The bishops are almost entirely occupied in setting a decent example to the governing race, and in preventing or hushing up clerical scandals. The native mind does not seem to have any place or longing for a new religion. If there is any success of Chri-tian teaching in India, certainly the success of Romanism among the half-castes is among the most noticeable. What is done of a real and permanent sort by Protestants is the patient, slow work of schools and stations, which un-questionably produce some valuable results, although on a tiny scale, and although both the teachers and the taught remain like a lit-tle flock of neglected aliens among the mass of a contemptuous and indifferent population.

[From the Vienna Presse.] THE AUSTRIAN PRESS ON THE MEXICAN EM-PIRE.—News is current throughout the city to day that Archduke Ferdinand Max. is upo the point of accepting the imperial crown of fered him by Mexico. We have already point ed out what appears to us the danger of this political plan, and we need, therefore, hardi repeat how greatly one should regret the confirmation of this intelligence. To those per sons who come before us with an affectation of loyalty, and declare that the press has no right to interfere in the matter that it ght to interfere in the matter, that it is p right to interfere in the matter, that it is purely a private concern of the Archduke, and that we have no business to attempt to restrict his personal freedom, we reply that they don't know what they are talking about. Independently of the fact that we have not the presumption to suppose our disapproval will prevent the Archduke from accepting the crown if he feels inclined, we are yet unmistakably of opinion that the personal interest of the Archduke is not alone concerned in his taking his seat upon the Mexican throne.

We should have to recollect, under any circumstances, that the ruler of Mexico was the brother of the Emperor of Austria. Any misfortune that might overtake him would be a misfortune for the imperial family—insult to the Emperor of Mexico would be insult to Austria, We believe that too little is as yet known of the real foundation upon which this Mexican throne is to be erected, or there could not possibly be any idea of its occupation be an Austrian Archduke. Even at the Tuillet ies it has not been definitely decided whether to recognize the Mexican Assembly of Notables, drummed together by Forey, as competent, or whether to ratify their decision by an appeal to universal suffrage. The latter course is the most probable; so that the future possessor of the Mexican throne may feel the leaden weight of French protective rule as large as receivily. long as possible. Nobody will convince us that a real election, an honestly-meant nomination of a ruler agreeable to the chief parties in the land, is intended. An idea has got abroad that, among the reasons which induced the Emperor of Austria to issue his invitation for the 16th of the present month, a principal one was the desire to forestall, and, if possible, to win over this Diet of Deputies or embryo Parliament. At any rate, the near coincidence of time and place, the proximity of the crowned heads to the outspoken assembly of the people's representatives, can hardly fail to give to the latter body, and to its proceedings, an interest which German affairs have of late failed to inspire anywhere beyond the narrow limits of the

THURSDAY, SEPT. 10, 1863.

REBEL EVACUATION OF CHATTANOOGA .- It will be learned by many with surprise that the rebels, after devoting so much time and labor and money to rendering more powerful the naturally very powerful position of Chattanooga, abandoned it day before yesterday. in front of our armies, and moved South upon the Western and Atlantic railroad. The previous evacuation of Tullahoma greatly discouraged and demoralized the Confederate forces, and this last retreat, the greatest and most inglorious of all, may, we should think, consummate the work of discouragement and demoralization. Surely so formidable a stronghold as Chattancoga, garrisoned by an army of fifty thousand men as Chattanooga is said to have been, was never before surrendered so ignobly. No explanations can annul or mitigate the base shame to the Confederate arms, unless indeed the fact was discovered that the rebel army had become too deeply disaffected toward the rebel Government to be willing to fight for it any longer.

It is stated, that, yesterday, rapid and vigorous pursuit of the retreating rebel forces heaped up fame and glory of all whose names was in progress. We are of course impatient to learn what prisoners, artillery, small arms, | are united to form his. We think that we munitions, provisions, &c., have been capand our military colleagues, with his gentle mother's permission, should assume a sort of tured at Chattanooga and in the pursuit, joint guardianship of him. We trust that no whether the rebels have yet made a stand, and, if they have, at what point. Perhaps dissension will arise between them and us on account of their desire to make him a General they have taken their position at Atlanta, which is known to have been for a long time | and ours to make him an Editor. Of course they must at once see the propriety of yieldfortified. But Atlanta is by no means so strong as Chattanooga; hence, if Bragg could | ing to us upon that point. Or we will agree that the little fellow survey their achievenot make a successful resistance at the former, he can scarcely hope to do so at the latter. It | ments at the head of their columns in the field seems not improbable that his plan is to get and ours at the head of the columns of the his troops or as many of them as possible into Louisville Journal and decide for himself. Virginia for a junction with Gen. Lee, al- | They have not now to learn that "the pen is though he cannot go there except by a long, | mightier than the sword." circuitous, and most tedious route, inasmuch as the Tennessee and Virginia Railroad is in our hands. The rebel policy, if any such thing as policy is left in that quarter, will soon reveal itself.

In the mean while, it is joy to know that the possession of Chattanooga, Knoxville, &c., paralyzes the Southern Confederacy at its very heart and throughout all its central organs o vitality. While we hold the great Tennessee and Virginia railroad and the great Western and Atlantic railroad, Chattanooga being in fact the focal point of the great Southern system of railroads, there can be no vital communication between the different portions of the Confederacy. First Arkansas and Texas | ing work for them at good wages, the woodwere cloven off from the Confederacy by the conquest of the navigation of the Mississippi throughout its entire extent, and now what was left is cloven asunder. The whole of Tennessee and a large portion of Georgia and Alabama are at any rate ours, and, if Atlanta shall be captured either by battle or through the flight of the rebel forces to Virginia, the whole of the Cotton States will probably fall into our hands without resistance, and Virginia will hardly be able to hold out for any length of time. It may be that the last desperate hope of the rebels is to concentrate their entire power in Virginia as soon as possible and again cross the Potomac and strike for the redemption of the fortunes of their government. This per- fore the negroes who have comfortable homes haps is the hope, but we do not fear the result. The final battle of the war may possibly be fought upon Northern territory, but it can have but one termination, and that a fore- proportion of them, we have no doubt, might known one. We have confidently believed all be. It is highly probable that the military along and confidently expressed the belief that authorities, before making the order for imthe capture of Chattanooga would be such a pressment, had this subject of "contraband" blow upon the head of the monster of the rebellion as a strong butcher strikes with an axe upon the head of a bullock, and we are confirmed in the opinion now. And with our whole souls we do congratulate the loyal people of Tennessee, long the most suffering and oppressed people of modern times, that they are at length redeemed, gloriously redeemed, from infernal thraldom. Every loyal heart in the nation will rejoice in their joy, be glad in their gladness, exult in their exultation. It is true, deplorably true, that many of their good men, victims of the remorseless rebel conscription, are far away from their beloved soil, rendering a hated service to the rebellion under duress of rebel bayonets, but they, in the righteous providence of God, will no doubt be soon restored to their homes and families. We trust, not only that we have seen "the beginning of the end", but that we are seeing the middle of the end.

The Editor of the Democrat now seems inclined to slip out of his long affiliation with the radicals on the question of military arrests, and slip into affiliation with the conservatives. He is undoubtedly a very slippery politician. He in his paper of yesterday brands military arrests in States where war does not exist as "'a startling usurpation." Our neighbor has made very astonishing progress on this subject within the last three or four days, for in his paper of Sunday he asserted that the President had a "right" to make such arrests, and declared that "the point now before this country" was not the rightfulness but "the enormous abuse of this power of arrest." Here is

The Louisville Journal is showing what is very marvellous, indeed, that the Democrat held that the President has a right to arrest men and hold them too. The Democrat does not deny the right now; nor do we hold that any man has a right to exhort men to disobey law or resist its authority.

The point now before this country is the enormous abuse of this power of arrest, and the abuse of the power to interfere with the freedom of speech and of the press.

This our neighbor said four days ago. Now he says "this power of arrest" is not rightful at all but is in itself "a startling usurpation." He indeed has made in the mean time not only very astonishing progress but a total revolution. We only wish we could believe that he would maintain his present attitude; but we cannot; we dare not. We have seen him make too many total revolutions in too much that Congress had "conferred on the Presishorter time! Meanwhile, we submit his latest dent, in case of formidable rebellion against revolution to our readers for what it is worth. the laws, belligerent rights to put it down,"

THE VANDERBILT.—It is highly probable that the United States steamer Vanderbilt has been sunk by the Confederate pirate Georgia. It has been so reported from Richmond, and the Tallahatchie Floridian says that it is informed that the Vanderbilt chased the Georgie for some hours, but, on receiving a broadside from the Georgia, sunk, and her whole crew, except thirty, were drowned .- Democrat.

There has been no confirmation of this news, which, if true, would have been blazon ed to the world through all the papers of the Confederacy. On the contrary, the weight of fire to his big coat and breeches and shoot him evidence is decidedly in favor of the safety of into Charleston, so that the rebels, who have the Vanderbilt. The ship Grey Eagle, at Balsuch a horror of the fire of Ancient Greece, timore, reports that when she sailed from Rio Janeiro on the 1st ult. the Vanderbilt was grease any better. We don't think they would still lying in that port, and that the United States steamer Mohican sailed thence on the previous day. The statement of the sinking of the Vanderbilt first appeared, we think, in a Mobile paper, about three weeks after she was safe at Rio, and the rumor came by way of Havana. The occurrence is located off the Bahamas, and the daily intercourse between the West Indies and our Atlantic cities would unquestionably have afforded full corroboration long before this. The Vanderbilt is one | would run away just as he did before—he of the most powerful vessels afloat, and was | would travel the old beaten path. heavily plated as a ram for the purpose of running down the rebel war ships, when it was thought they would attempt to come out of the Elizabeth river at Norfolk. The Charleston Mercury expresses a hope that "some heaven-directed missile" may send Gen. Gilmore "to the infernal shades." We guess that Gilmore, before going, will give Charleston, as his last bequest, a little more of the sort of fire that has so excited her. He will leave her a Greek testament.

five hundred negroes to cut wood as fuel for the locomotives used in the government busiaccordance with the terms of his general order No. 41, of August 10. This is intended to prevent obstructions to the farmers in the stock, as far as possible. But as the general harvest work is nearly completed, the additional terms of the special order are likely to induce owners to come forward and offer their slaves very liberally, for in addition to obtain-cutting service exempts them from all work on military roads away from their homes, while those who are willing to contract for the supply of 20 cords of wood monthly for each of their negroes can have them exempted entirely. These are very liberal terms, but if proper economy were to be considered, the

"contrabands" who are now detained at va-

DR. JOHN BULL'S COMPOUND CEDRON BITTERS The Latest and Most Important Discovery of the 19th Century.

COVERY Of the 19th Century.

NO MAN'S NAME IS MORE INTIMATELY CONaccted with the history of the Materia Medica of the United States, or more favorably known as a pioneer in medical discourse "shan that of Dr. JOHN BULL, of Louisville, Ky. His inimitable preparation of Sarssparilla, has long stood at the head of the various compounds of that valuable drug. His Compound Pectoral of Wild Cherry has become a household word throughout the West and South; and his Worm Lozenges, in less than a year after their introduction, attained a reputation as widespread as the continent of North America. But the crowning glory of his life remains to be attained in his latest discovery, or rather combination, for he does not also have been the discoveror of CEDBON, which is the basis of the bitters now effered to the public. That honor belongs to the native inhabitants of Central more than two hundred years. Armed with it the Indian hids without fear the most vestedly malaria, and handles without fear the most venomous seriemis. At it a he travagant pretension, he is novertheless satisfied from a thorough examination of the evidence relating to its virtues, that, as a remedy and preventive for all diseases arising from exposure, either to changes of weather and climate, or to the miasmatic influences, it stands without a rival, and justly deserves the reputation it has so long enjoyed in Central America and the West Indies. In > ment bear a comparison with it in this disease.

> A full account of this wonderful plant may be found in the 11th edition of the U. S. Dispensatory, pages 1387 and 1388.
> A series of experiments, in which Dr. Bull has been to years engaged, has just been brought to a success. per-distilled Bourbon whisky, which he is confident has no equal in the world. He might furnish a volume of certificates, but the public have long since learned to estimate such things at their true value. The safest plan is, for every one to test for himself the virtues of a new medicine. Give Cedron Bitters One trial and you will never use any others.

This companies of these men are already attired in the "true blue" uniform; and the General HE TOBACOO CROP .- We are constantly repointed them out with pride and satisfaction ceiving conflicting reports from different parts as they marched across the island to dress paof our State in reference to the prospect of rade. The time has come when it is not inthe tobacco crop. This information generally, vidious to do justice to the good military qua!ities of the Southern soldier, and Gen. Schoepf however, conveys the gratifying intelligence that the late frost has not seriously injured the growing tobacco. It has, in no section that we have heard from, done much damage. In some instances it has temporarily retarded the crop, but in no instance that we can hear of has it injured it to any great extent. It would be very difficult at the present writing, with the evidence before us, to estimate the extent of the crop. It will not fall short of that of any previous year. The immense quantity leafy as it has been in years past, although there are some exceptions of very fine crops, hurt. heavy, well matured, and leafy. The weather vines of the tenderest variety, and these only in the lowest localities. Upon the whole, present indications are that there will not be a heavy crop in these counties; and should there be a killing frost before the 1st of October, there will be a considerable portion of the weed injured, if not entirely destroyed.

Capt. Randolph, Co. B., Twenty-eighth Kentucky, made a dash into Mt. Pleasant, Tenn., on the 2d inst., with thirty-five men, and put to rout Lieutenant-Colonel Hines, of Wheeler's brigade, with a detachment of seventy-five or eighty men, killing two, wounding two, and capturing nine. Eight or ten horses and mules and several different sorts of arms were also captured. Our forces had Wood's THEATRE.-Nothwithstanding the stormy weather, the Bohemian Girl drew another good house last night and went off beautifully. How the gifted young artists of the Holman troupe could have studied the parts of so great a work is astonishing, and their rendering of the various roles still more so. Foreign talent has ever stood high with Americans, especially in music and the drama. Of the Holmans we are proud, for they are all "native and to the manor born." The Bohemian Girl is to be repeated to-night.

The military ball to be given by the officers now on duty at this post to-morrow night at the Masonic Temple, will, judging from the auspices under which it has been projected, be an enjoyable affair. The Post Band will be present, and the music therefore will be very fine. The gentlemen who have the arrangements immediately under their charge have the taste and gallantry requisite to achieve one of the most brilliant successes ever known in our city.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—After having given us charming representations of Pauline, Camille, and Madelaine, Miss Charlotte Thompson will this evening appear in The Cricket, so beautifully adapted from the French romance of Little Fadet. She performed it last season with great applause, and we may anticipate another intellectual treat to-night. To-morrow evening Miss T. will take a benefit, and, we understand, will perform Julia in the Hunchback.

The Board of Trade, at its meeting on Tuesday night, adopted a resolution to raise five thousand dollars by private subscription to defray the incidental expenses of a daily exchange. There can be no doubt that this sum will be promptly made up, and then the machinery will be put in motion immediately.

A large and exceedingly fine-looking drove of mules for the government service passed our office yesterday. We don't remember to have seen a better lot of animals since the war commenced. It will rejoice Capt. Fosses to inspect such stock.

RAIN.-A heavy rain fell here yesterday. It mmenced raining early yesterday morning and continued throughout the early portion of | is to be another. the day. If it was general, as appearances now indicate, the river will swell considerably in the next few days. We most ardently hope so.

ISONERS SENT NORTH .- One hundred and | week or two. rebel prisoners of war were sent North vesterday. Their destination was Camp Chase, Ohio. They were under strong guard, and went over the Indianapolis Railroad by the way of Cincinnati.

Francis Wilson was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing Carpenter's tools and a coat from parties on the corner of Preston and Jefferson streets. He was taken to jail and will have his trial this morning.

Brigadier-General Carr has been assigned to the left wing of General Hurlbut's army, with headquarters at Corinth. He has reported for duty at Memphis.

HIGH-PRICED TOBACCO .- A hogshead of tobacco was sold in this city yesterday to Mr. Edmunds, manufacturer, for sixty dollars. It was raised in Missouri.

There was little doing in the Police Court yesterday morning. Four women of bad character were sent to the Workhouse, and a negro was ordered to receive ten stripes.

The improvements now going on upon the front of the Louisville Theatre are rapidly being pushed toward completion, and will be finished in a few days.

POSTPONED SALE .- The sale of condemned government stock advertised to take place yesterday was postponed, on account of bad weather, to Friday, the 11th. F. M. Ray, Esq., is the member elect to he State Legislature from the counties of Hickman and Fulton.

REBEL PRISONERS TO BE USED AS UNION CAVALRY .- About seven hundred of the ten thousand rebel prisoners at Fort Delaware have taken the oath of allegiance, and Gen. Schoepf, the commander of the post, is now organizing them into a cavalry regiment for the National service. The General, who has the nature reperience, and understands borne on both sides of a way, 2:45 P. M. into this regiment any prisoner who has property in the South, or a wife and family there. Having thus excluded from this organization the elements of revolt, he finds in the simplenatured, docile, easily-satisfied Southern soldiers excellent material for a regiment. Four

THE KANSAS INVASION. - The St. Louis Democrat understands from a gentleman who came down from Macon City on Monday, that the 10th Kansas regiment, which left St. Louis last week, is the regiment ordered by General Schofield to repel the invasion by Lane. The soldiers on their way up openly declared that they would not fight against Lane's forces Present appearances would indicate a serious conflict early to take place between the Kansians and the commander of the department. The same gentleman reports that the 10th Kansas, while en route, carried off about forty negroes from rebel sympathizers in and about Macon City. The slaves of Union men were not disturbed.

The Mary Edson, a vessel that was freighted with provisions and breadstuffs, through the noble liberality of Mr. A. T. Stewart, the eminent New York merchant, and sent to the suffering poor of his native district, in the county Antrim, has returned to New York. Mr. S. not only sent temporary relief, but offered free passages to this country for all strong and healthy persons who desired to emigrate from their homes. The result is that the Mary Edson brings one hundred and thirty-nine passengers, nearly one-third of whom are females, while the men are all experienced mechanics or farm laborers.

State fairs will be held this year by the Western States as follows: Kentucky, at Louisville, from the 15th to the 19th of September; Ohio, at Cleveland, from the 15th to the 18th of September; Indiana, at Indianapolis, from the 28th of September to the 3d of attention of his friends and the public gener-October; and Illinois, at Decatur, during the same time; Iowa, at Dubuque, on September 22d and 23d; and Michigan, at Kalamazo, from the 23d to the 26th of September.

Mr. E. Meriam, of New York, states the very remarkable fact that the deaths in a single day in that city, from sunstroke, during the late hot weather, exceeded the number of deaths occurring in any single twenty-four hours from yellow fever in any of the years when that pestilence became epidemic there.

GEN. GREEN CLAY SMITH .- The Cincinnati Enquirer understands that this officer has received authority from the War Department to raise a regiment of heavy artillery and a regiment of infantry. He will commence recruiting in Covington immediately.

Forrest draws better now in New York than he ever did. The Times's dramatic critic proncunces his style to be mellowed with years, and declares that his acting is finer than it was in his palmiest days.

RUMORED RAID—THE SPALDING COURT OF INQUIRY—IMPRESSMENT OF NEGROES—MA-BION'S QUOTA OF VOLUNTERRS, ETC. LEBANON, KY., Sept. 8.
The rumor that Hamilton, Hughes, and Ferguson were on their way to Lebanon caused some considerable excitement here on the 6th inst. Citizens were preparing to leave for parts unknown, and our worthy Provost Marshal was decidedly excited. Fortunately it was soon found out to be one grand scare nobody hurt—and on Monday our town was itself again.

The "Court of Inquiry" sent out to investigate the case of Colonel Spalding, charged with shooting Captain Murphy, of the 8th Kentucky cavalry, is now sitting. Major Fitch is President, and Captain Wolcott is Judge Advocate. The Court consists of Majors Fitch and Waller, and Captains Jouett and Wolcott-four officers noted for gallantry in the field, and who would, under no circumstance, do any man injustice. The people may indeed feel glad that four officers of such known intelligence and honor were selected to investigate the conduct of the unfortunate officer. I understand that they progress well with the case.

Negroes to work on the railroad to Danville were collected here yesterday from our county. This county will furnish about 150 I sup-

A meeting was called in the courthouse yesterday afternoon to devise some plan to ascertain the exact number of troops that have gone from this county during the war. A. Bickett was chosen chairman and J. M. Fidler secretary. John R. Thomas, Representative of Marion county, explained the design of the meeting. It was resolved that committees be meeting. It was resolved that committees be appointed in each voting precinct who should ascertain, as early as possible, the exact number of men who have enlisted in their respective districts. John R. Thomas was appointed to superintend the whole affair, and to return the list to the Adjutant-General of the State. I may add just here that the county claims to have furnished over 1,000 men to the Federal army, whereas she only has credit for have just talked to a reliable man from Clinton county, and learn that it is impossible for Hamilton & Co. to raise six hundred men, the number given them by the authori-ies during the last scare. He asserts that Hamilton has about 170 men, Hughes about 10, and Ferguson 15. The merchants in Adair, Clinton, and Cumberland have been porting a large amount of goods into their

Charleston, Sept. 7.—Morris Island was evacuated yesterday afternoon. The enemy had advanced their sappers up to the moat of Wagner, and, it being impossible to hold it, Beauregard ordered its evacuation, which took place at noon

The bombardment was kept up without intermission all day yesterday and far into the night. About one hundred and fifty of our men were killed and wounded at batteries Wagner and Gregg. The attempt to assault Battery Gregg was repulsed before the enemy had completed their landing. Great havoc is supposed to have been made in the enemy's oats by our grape and cannister.

At dark on Wednesday, the enemy, having advanced their sappers to the very moat of Wagner, and it being impossible to hold the Island longer, Gen. Beauregard ordered its

THE PIRATE RETRIBUTION SEIZED. - The pirate schooner Retribution, now known as the Etta, was seized yesterday at one of the wharves of Jersey city by Deputy Marshal Charles W. Benjamin, of New Jersey, under the direction of United States District Attorney Keasby, of that State. The Etta came to this port a week or so ago from the West and 13 missing. He captured many small arms, 3 field-pieces, 6 caissons, 3 limbers, 3 rifled siege pieces without carriages, besides ndies, with a cargo of pineapples, which she lischarged. Her rakish appearance attracted attention, and an officer was sent to look at her, but found that immediately upon the discharge of her cargo the Etta had disappeared. Search was immediately instituted by the au-horities here and by District Attorney Keasov. who had obtained some information in the tter, and the efforts of the latter were in a lay or two rewarded with success, as stated Proceedings have already been instituted for the condemnation of the vessel. The Uncle Ben, alias Retribution, alias Etta, was former-ly a New York propeller tugboat, but was sold at Wilmington, N. C., just before the outkreak of the rebellion.—N. Y. Evening Post, 4th. Meeting of Tobacco Manufacturers. A Ta meeting of the tobacco manufacturers of this city, held this (Wednesday) morning at the Lou is ville Tobacco Warehouse. Mr. Burge was called to the Chair, and D. M. Anderson appointed Secretary.

The Chair explained the object of the meeting, viz: To consider the importance and practicability of calling a convention of the tobacco manufacturers of the West. In order that some uniform regulations may be established that will give reliability to the weights of manufactured tobacco throughout the country.

The Chair remarked that it would be well to have the co-operation of the Northern manufacturers, as he was aware of the interest they had in such a movement.

ASTROLOGY.

Look Out! Good News for All!

THE NEVER-FAILING MADAME ISABEL
SNELL is the best. She succeeds when all others have failed. All who are in treuble; all who have been unfortunate; all whose fond hopes have been dicappointed, crushed, and blasted by false premises and deceit—all fly to her for advice and satisfaction.
In love affairs she never fails. She shows you the likeness of your future husband or wife. She gaides the single to a happy marriage. Her aid and advice have been solicited in innumerable instances, and the we been solicited in innumerable instances, and the sult has always been the means of securing a speedy d happy marriage. She is therefore a sure dependand happy marriage. She is therefore a sure dependence.

It is well known to the public at large that she was the first and she is now the only person in this country who can show the likeness in reality, and who can give entire satisfaction on all the concerns of life, which can be attested and proved by thousands, both married and single, who daily and eagerly visit her. To all in business her advice is invaluable. She can foretell, with the greatest certainty, the result of all commercial and business transactions. Madame Snell is a bone fide Astrologist that every ene can depend upon. She is the greatest Astrologist of the nineteenth century. Some ladies may be a little timid, though they need not fear, for she practises nothing but what is recencilable to philosophers; in fact a single visit will satisfy the most fastidious of her respectability, moral rectitude, and of the purity of her profession and practice. All interviews are strictly private and condidential; therefore come, one—come, all.

***SFPrices reduced to suit the times. Ladies one dollar; gentlemen two dollars.

P. S.—Madame Snell will tell the names and ages of all visitors, and will also cast their Horoscope and give them their nativity, also tell the place where they will be most fortunate. Every person who cannot get along in this world and has bad luck, should be in possession of her Horoscope and get her written opinion of his future prospect in life.

CALL AT OUR FOUNDERY, SOUTH SIDE
Main street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth, and see this Mill, which we do not hesitate to say will give better satisfaction and has more points of excellence than ALL OTHER MILLS COMBINED. ALL OTHER MILLS COMBINED.

This mill is heavier than other mills of the same size, and the extra weight is placed at points so as to prevent the possibility of breakage, and all the brass journal-boxes can be taken out, cleaned, repaired, oiled, &c., and replaced without the least trouble of taking the mill to pieces (as is the case with all other mills which have not this improvement). The simplicity and neatness, combined with strength, speaks for itself. And all who have used this mill do not hesitate in saying it is the best mill in use.
